Beyond the Stats

TYLER VANDENBARK, FLEMING

Fleming sophomore Tyler Vandenburg dominated the VarVee statewide leader boards, ending the 2011 Colorado campaign as No. 1 in four offensive categories: runs per game at 2.81, hits per game at 2.38, RBI per game at 2.43 and stolen bases per game at a larcenous 2.19. As a pitcher, Vandenburg ranked No. 2 in the state in strikeouts per inning at 2.08 for the 21-4 Wildcats, which lost to Stratton, 3-0, in the 1A title game.

Vandenburg's overall statistics were just as impressive. He batted .761 by going 54 for 71 with a .798 on-base percentage and 1.535 slugging for an incredible 2.333 OPS. He belted 18 doubles, eight triples and seven home runs among his 54 hits, drove in 55 runs and scored 64 times. He also stole 50 bases – he was caught only once -- and walked 23 times while striking out on just four occasions all season.

"He's a pretty good-sized kid (6-0, 200) who swings the bat hard," said his coach and father, Bob Vandenburg. "He works the pitcher pretty well and there's not a whole lot that he gets fooled on. He's a solid batter."

In 66 innings spread over 14 outings, Tyler compiled a 10-3 record with a save and a 1.27 ERA. He struck out 131 batters, walked 16 and posted a minuscule 0.71 WHIP.

"I think he's probably a little better pitcher than batter," his dad said. "He has some pretty good stuff." When the left-handed Vandenburg isn't pitching, he plays shortstop for Fleming, which draws from a tight 12-man roster. "He has a pretty big arm and fields the ball pretty well," his father said. "I'd like to him play at first or in the outfield, but we don't have that many kids. He's learned to adapt and has done pretty well. He does as well as any right-hander."

REGIS JESUIT

Steve Cavnar did not tell his team that he was retiring as coach until moments after the season had ended -- with the Aurora school's first state championship since 1988. Regis Jesuit (20-7) accomplished that feat with a power-packed 15-10 victory over Cherry Creek in the 5A title game, when every starter scored a run and contributed a least one hit to a 21-hit assault. The Raiders scored in five of their six at-bats and broke the game open by scoring seven runs in the sixth inning to snap an 8-8 deadlock. Evan Escobedo led the barrage with a pair of three-run homers and six RBI, giving him 12 home runs and a whopping 57 RBI for the season. Sam Cameron and Tanner Ernst also homered in the championship game while Drew Merten and Brody Weiss, son of ex-Rockies shortstop and Regis Jesuit assistant Walt Weiss, had four hits apiece. Regis Jesuit closed the season by winning 16 of its last 18 games after an early four-game losing streak left it with a 4-5 record.

"We're blessed. We have a great group of kids that were focused and showed resiliency and the ability to bounce back and compete in the entire state tournament," Cavnar told The Aurora Sentinel. "It was just a great, great year." Regis Jesuit compiled a .390 team batting average with 49 home runs and a team slugging percentage of .691 that more than compensated for the 4.74 ERA compiled by its pitching staff. All this has given Regis Jesuit national recognition -- the Raiders have moved into 18th place in USA Today's latest national rankings and made more headlines this week when the Colorado Rockies selected Connor McKay in the 24th round of the MLB Draft. McKay, who tore his ACL in the 5A football title game in December, returned for 26 at-bats this year and contributed a double in the championship game.
